

Language Course Visa

General information:

All residents of the United States who wish to do a language course in Germany must obtain a residence permit in the form of a visa. Please note that a visa can only be granted for a so called “intensive language course” of at least 18 hours a week.

Once all required documents have been submitted, the application and supporting documents will be forwarded to the competent Aliens Authority (Ausländerbehörde) at the applicant’s intended place of residence during his/her stay in Germany. The processing can take up to 12 weeks. As soon as the application has been approved by the German authority, the Embassy/Consulate will issue a national visa for the first 6 months of the intended stay. A final residence permit for the whole duration of the language course will be issued upon arrival in Germany by the Aliens’ Authority.

Although the visa is called a “national visa”, please note that it does also entitle its holder to enter other Schengen countries for a stay of up to 90 days for tourism purposes.
